Anne Moore journal, 1765-1786
MC.975.01.046
Finding aid prepared by Kara Flynn

This finding aid was produced using the Archivists' Toolkit
April 20, 2016
Describing Archives: A Content Standard
Table of Contents

Summary Information ................................................................................................................................. 3
Biographical note .................................................................................................................................. 4
Scope and Content note ......................................................................................................................... 4
Administrative Information .................................................................................................................... 4
Related Materials ................................................................................................................................ 5
Controlled Access Headings ................................................................................................................... 5
Collection Inventory .............................................................................................................................. 6
Summary Information

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>Repository</th>
<th>Haverford College Quaker &amp; Special Collections</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>Creator</td>
<td>Moore, Anne, 1710-1783</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Title</td>
<td>Anne Moore journal</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Date [inclusive]</td>
<td>1756-1786</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Extent</td>
<td>0.083 Linear feet</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Language</td>
<td>English</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>

Preferred Citation

Anne Moore journal (MC.975.01.046), Quaker & Special Collections, Haverford College, Haverford, PA.
Biographical note

Ann Moore (1710-1783) was born Ann Harbut or Herbert on November 16, 1710 in Pennsylvania. According to an account made by the Friends of Gunpowder Monthly Meeting, Moore’s mother died shortly after her birth and she was placed among Friends. Moore married Walter Moore, who was later disowned or resigned from the Society of Friends. The couple had four children, their birthdates are unknown. Moore was recognized as a minister in 1738, and traveled throughout the American colonies in that capacity. In 1760-1761, while en route to Great Britain, Moore’s ship was taken captive and carried to Spain. In 1778, Moore traveled through Pennsylvania and New York, passing through military lines. Moore died on November 11, 1783 in Baltimore at the age of 73.

Sources: Dictionary of Quaker Biography, Ann Moore’s Journal

Scope and Content note

This collection includes a single photocopy of Anne Moore’s journal. Entries detail her travels as a Quaker minister to Maryland, Pennsylvania, New York, parts of New England, and England. Entries also provide descriptions of Quaker meetings, visits from Friends, and Moore’s reflections on religion and advice for her children.

Included at the end of the journal are testimonies about Moore by her children, which were read at her funeral and at the Baltimore Quarterly meeting.

Administrative Information

Publication Information

Haverford College Quaker & Special Collections July 2015

Use Restrictions

Standard Federal Copyright Law Applies (U.S. Title 17).

Acquisition
Collection Inventory

| Journal 1756-1786 |  |