Table of Contents

Summary Information ................................................................................................................................. 3

Biographical note ........................................................................................................................................ 4

Scope and Content note ................................................................................................................................. 4

Administrative Information .......................................................................................................................... 4

Related Materials ........................................................................................................................................ 5

Controlled Access Headings ............................................................................................................................ 5

Collection Inventory ...................................................................................................................................... 6
Summary Information

Repository: Haverford College Quaker & Special Collections

Creator: Davis, Mary Howland, 1811-

Title: Mary Davis letterbook

Date [inclusive]: 1838-1849

Extent: 0.06 Linear feet

Language: English

Preferred Citation

Mary Davis letterbook (MC.975.02.004), Quaker & Special Collections, Haverford College, Haverford, PA.
Mary Howland Davis (1811-) was likely born on November 12, 1811. She traveled to New York on a religious visit in 1838.

This collection is comprised of the single volume letterbook of Mary Davis. Correspondence within is largely personal, but does include a number of letters addressed to her Meeting, including South Kingstown Monthly Meeting. The letters included in this volume are all written by Mary Davis, and are addressed to the following individuals: Lydia Gould, P. Dunham, J Walton, and her son, J.H Davis, among others. Letters are generally religious in nature, or are related to personal matters such as news of family and friends. A number of letters dated 1838 are related to Davis's religious visit to New York.

Publication Information
Haverford College Quaker & Special Collections August 2015

Use Restrictions
Standard Federal Copyright Law Applies (U.S. Title 17).

Acquisition
Unknown.

Processing Information
Processed by Kara Flynn; completed August 2015.
Related Materials

Related Materials
MC 856 John Wilbur papers

Controlled Access Headings

Genre(s)

- Correspondence.

Subject(s)

- Quaker women -- United States
- Quakers
- Women and religion.
<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>Collection Inventory</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>Vol. 1 1838-1849</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>