Table of Contents

Summary Information ................................................................................................................................. 3
Biographical note ......................................................................................................................................... 4
Scope and Content note ................................................................................................................................. 4
Administrative Information .......................................................................................................................... 4
Related Materials ....................................................................................................................................... 5
Controlled Access Headings ......................................................................................................................... 5
Collection Inventory ................................................................................................................................. 6
Summary Information

Repository: Haverford College Quaker & Special Collections

Creator: Haines, Catherine, 1758-1798

Title: Catherine Haines commonplace book

Date [inclusive]: 1775-1777

Extent: 0.1 Linear feet

Language: English

Preferred Citation

Catherine Haines (MC.975.03.017), Quaker & Special Collections, Haverford College, Haverford, PA.
Biographical note

Catherine Haines (1758-1798) was born in October of 1758 in Frederick County, Virginia. She married John S. Mullin on March 25, 1776, in Burlington, N.J. Mullen was not a Quaker, and Haines was disowned for marrying outside the Society of Friends. The couple had at least one child who survived to adulthood, Isaac Mullen (b. 1777). In 1790, Haines was reinstated by her Evesham Monthly Meeting in N.J. and she got a certificate of removal to Crooked Creek Monthly Meeting in Virginia. Catherine Haines died on May 25, 1798 in Frederick County Virginia.

Scope and Content note

This collection is comprised of the single volume commonplace book of Catherine Haines. The volume includes extracts on the art of writing, poetry, extracts of speeches, extracts on child rearing and education, Indians, a memorandum for Susanna James, extracts from William Hunt's illness, and a memorandum of Hannah Shoemaker.

Administrative Information

Publication Information
Haverford College Quaker & Special Collections August 2015

Use Restrictions
Standard Federal Copyright Law Applies (U.S. Title 17).

Acquisition
The Catherine Haines commonplace book was donated to Special Collections, Haverford College, in 1957 by Mrs. Samuel Emlen.

Processing Information
Related Materials

Related Materials
MC.975.03.018 Deborah Haines commonplace book

Controlled Access Headings

Genre(s)

- Commonplace books

Subject(s)

- Child rearing – Religious aspects – Society of Friends
- Poetry.
- Quaker women
- Quakers
- Quakers--History
Collection Inventory

| Commonplace book 1775-1777 |