Table of Contents

Summary Information ........................................................................................................................................... 3

Biographical note .................................................................................................................................................. 4

Scope and Content .................................................................................................................................................. 4

Administrative Information .................................................................................................................................. 4

Related Materials .................................................................................................................................................. 5

Controlled Access Headings .................................................................................................................................. 5

Collection Inventory ............................................................................................................................................... 6
Summary Information

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>Repository</th>
<th>Haverford College Quaker &amp; Special Collections</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>Creator</td>
<td>Barnes, Gregory Allen</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Title</td>
<td>&quot;Philadelphia's Arch Street Meeting House: A Biography&quot;</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Date</td>
<td>2011</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Extent</td>
<td>0.1 Linear feet</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Language</td>
<td>English</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>

Preferred Citation

"Philadelphia's Arch Street Meeting House: A Biography" by Gregory Barnes (MC.975.07.010), Quaker & Special Collections, Haverford College, Haverford, PA.
Biographical note

Dr. Gregory A. Barnes (1934-) is a Quaker author and historian and member of Philadelphia Yearly Meeting. He was a former Peace Corpsman in Africa, he received his PhD at the University of Wisconsin and he spent many years at Drexel University, directing the English Language Center and in publishing academic materials for international learners of English.

Scope and Content

This collection is comprised of the single volume typed manuscript of Gergory Barnes' "Philadelphia's Arch Street Meeting House: A Biography." The manuscript provides a history of Philadelphia's Arch Street Meeting House from the purchase of the land by William Penn in 1683 to the present, including important Quaker individuals, the influence of Philadelphia's history on the Meeting House, the Orthodox-Hicksite separation, and the Wilburite-Gurneyites.

Administrative Information

Publication Information

Haverford College Quaker & Special Collections September 2015

Use Restrictions

Standard Federal Copyright Law Applies (U.S. Title 17).

Acquisition

Unknown.

Processing Information

Processed by Kara Flynn; completed September 2015.
Related Materials

Related materials
MC 950.132 Morris-Libby papers

Controlled Access Headings

Genre(s)

- Biographies
- Manuscripts

Subject(s)

- Society of Friends -- Pennsylvania -- Philadelphia -- History -- Sources
- Quakers
- Quakers -- Pennsylvania -- Philadelphia
- Quakers--History
- Society of Friends -- Hicksite Separation
Collection Inventory

| Manuscript 2011 |