“From World War One to the Bicentennial: An Autobiography,” 1976
MC.975.07.100
Finding aid prepared by Kara Flynn

This finding aid was produced using the Archivists’ Toolkit
April 27, 2016
Describing Archives: A Content Standard
Table of Contents

Summary Information .................................................................................................................. 3
Biographical note .................................................................................................................... 4
Scope and Content note ............................................................................................................ 4
Administrative Information ....................................................................................................... 4
Related Materials ..................................................................................................................... 5
Controlled Access Headings ...................................................................................................... 5
Collection Inventory ................................................................................................................ 6
Summary Information

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>Repository</th>
<th>Haverford College Quaker &amp; Special Collections</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>Creator</td>
<td>Wood, Morris Wistar, 1899-1980</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Title</td>
<td>“From World War One to the Bicentennial: An Autobiography”</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Date</td>
<td>1976</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Extent</td>
<td>0.1 Linear feet</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Language</td>
<td>English</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>

Preferred Citation

“From World War One to the Bicentennial: An Autobiography” (MC.975.07.100), Quaker & Special Collections, Haverford College, Haverford, PA.
Biographical note

Morris Wistar Wood (1899-1980) was born in Germantown, Philadelphia, Pa. in 1899, the son of Horatio Curtis Wood (1870-1943) and Annabella Cresson Wistar (1872-1967). Wood attended the University of Pennsylvania School of Engineering, but joined the Student Army Training Corp during his sophomore year in 1917. With the end of WWI, Wood returned to School at the University of Pennsylvania. After graduating, Wood taught for two years in Canton, where he married his wife, Evelyn Page in 1922, and the couple had three children. Wood spent his career teaching and in academic administrative at a variety of institutions in and around Philadelphia. He died in Philadelphia in 1980.

Scope and Content note

This collection is comprised of the single volume, typed autobiography of Morris Wistar Wood and his wife Evelyn, written by Wood. The volume describes Wood's early life, his education, his travels in the U.S. and abroad, his time spent teaching and in academic administration at various schools, including at a school in Lingnan, at the Culver Military Academy, the University of Pennsylvania, Westtown School, and the Pennsylvania Academy of Fine Arts. Wood also describes his family life with his wife Evelyn, and their children.

Administrative Information

Publication Information

Haverford College Quaker & Special Collections October 2015

Use Restrictions

Standard Federal Copyright Law Applies (U.S. Title 17).

Immediate Acquisition

Unknown.

Processing Information
Related Materials

Related Materials
MC 1140 Morris Wistar Wood papers

Controlled Access Headings

Genre(s)

• Autobiographies
• Manuscripts

Subject(s)

• Quakers
Collection Inventory

| Manuscript 1976 |