Francis G. Allinson photograph album, 1833
MC.975.06.005
Finding aid prepared by Kara Flynn

This finding aid was produced using the Archivists' Toolkit
March 16, 2016
Describing Archives: A Content Standard
Table of Contents

Summary Information ......................................................................................................................... 3

Biographical note ............................................................................................................................ 4

Scope and Content note .................................................................................................................. 4

Administrative Information ............................................................................................................. 4

Related Materials ............................................................................................................................ 5

Controlled Access Headings .......................................................................................................... 5

Collection Inventory ....................................................................................................................... 6
Summary Information

Repository: Haverford College Quaker & Special Collections

Creator: Allinson, Francis Greenleaf, 1856-1931

Title: Francis G. Allinson photograph album

Date: 1833

Extent: 0.31 Linear feet

Language: English

Preferred Citation
Francis G. Allinson photograph albums (MC.975.06.005), Quaker & Special Collections, Haverford College, Haverford, PA.
Biographical note

Francis Greenleaf Allinson (1856-1931) was born December 16, 1856 in Burlington, N.J., the son of William James Allinson and Rebecca W. Hinchman Allinson. Allinson was educated at Haverford College, where he earned his B.A. in 1876 and his M.A. in 1879. He received a second B.A. from Harvard in 1877, and his Ph.D. from John Hopkins University in 1880. In 1885, he married Mary Irwin Carey, and the couple had one daughter, Susanne Allinson (b. 1887). His first wife died in 1901, and he married Anne Crosby Emery in 1905. Allinson taught Latin and Greek at Haverford College, he was the Headmaster at the University School in Baltimore, Md. He was an assistant professor of Greek, 1882. He also taught at Brown University in 1895. Allinson published "Greek Lands and Letters" which was reproduced in multiple editions. He retired from teaching in 1928, and died on June 23, 1931.

Scope and Content note

This collection is comprised of the single volume photograph album of Francis G. Allinson. The album features photographs from Allinson's travels in Europe, particularly of landscapes, buildings, ruins, and mountains. According to some of the labels on the photos, a number of photos were taken in Germany, along the Rhine river. Also included are a number of Quaker portraits, including portraits of: Charles S. Taylor, Abraham Taylor, Lizzie Rob, Belle Pugh, Amelia Gummere, Bessie Eyre, William Kimber, Howard Taylor, Samuel Alsop, Edward Allinson, and Samuel Gummere.

Administrative Information

Publication Information

Haverford College Quaker & Special Collections October 2015

Use Restrictions

Standard Federal Copyright Law Applies (U.S. Title 17).

Acquisition
Unknown.

Processing Information

Processed by Kara Flynn; completed October 2015.

---

Related Materials

Related Materials

MC 968 Allinson family papers

---

Controlled Access Headings

Genre(s)

- Photograph albums
- Photographs.
- Travel photography

Geographic Name(s)

- Germany.

Subject(s)

- Quakers
- Quakers -- Portraits
- Quakers -- Travel
- Quakers--History
Collection Inventory

| Photograph album 1833 |