Table of Contents

Summary Information ................................................................................................................................. 3

Biographical note ........................................................................................................................................ 4

Scope and Content note ............................................................................................................................. 4

Administrative Information .......................................................................................................................... 4

Related Materials ....................................................................................................................................... 5

Controlled Access Headings ....................................................................................................................... 5

Collection Inventory .................................................................................................................................... 6
Summary Information

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>Repository</th>
<th>Haverford College Quaker &amp; Special Collections</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>Title</td>
<td>John Pemberton manuscript</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Date</td>
<td>Undated</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Extent</td>
<td>0.02 Linear feet</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Language</td>
<td>English</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>

Preferred Citation

John Pemberton manuscript (MC.975.07.121), Quaker & Special Collections, Haverford College, Haverford, PA.
Biographical note

John Pemberton (1727-1795) was born in Philadelphia, Pa. February 27, 1727, the youngest son of Israel Pemberton Sr. and Rachel Read. Pemberton went to England for his health in 1751, and accompanied John Churchman on the voyage and on the preacher's travels in England. Pemberton first spoke as a minister in Penzance, Cornwall. He was involved in Indian issues and was present at the Treaty with the Indians at Easton, Pennsylvania, in 1757.

Pemberton married Hannah Zane in Philadelphia in 8th month, 1766. During the American Revolutionary War, in 1777, Pemberton was taken prisoner as a non-combatant in Winchester, Virginia. Pemberton went again on religious visit to Europe in 1794, where he became ill and died. He was buried in Pyrmont, Germany, 1 month, 31, 1795.

Scope and Content note

This collection is comprised of the single volume, handwritten manuscript concerning John Pemberton. The manuscript's author is unknown, but a note included in the collection indicates that the manuscript may have been compiled by William Hodgson. It provides a brief biographical sketch of Pemberton, and contains excerpts from his journals and letters from his religious visit in England in 1750.

Administrative Information

Publication Information

Haverford College Quaker & Special Collections December 2015

Use Restrictions

Standard Federal Copyright Law Applies (U.S. Title 17).

Acquisition

The John Pemberton manuscript was donated to Quaker & Special Collections, Haverford College, in 1934 by Eleanor R. Elkinton.
Processing Information
Processed by Kara Flynn; completed December 2015.

Related Materials

Related Materials
- MC 851 American Friends letters collection
- MC 861 British Friends' letters
- MC 950.061 Henry Drinker papers
- MC 954 Richard T. Cadbury papers
- MC 975.01.055 John Pemberton diaries
- MC 975.07.45 "The Life and Travels in the Ministry of the Gospel of John Pemberton"
- MC 1036 Pemberton family papers

Controlled Access Headings

Genre(s)
- Diaries.
- Letters

Personal Name(s)
- Pemberton, John, 1727-1795

Subject(s)
- Quakers
- Quakers -- Travel
- Quakers--History
Collection Inventory

| Manuscript Undated |