Dillwyn & Hill family wills, 1762-1801
MC.975.11.010
Finding aid prepared by Kara Flynn

This finding aid was produced using the Archivists' Toolkit
April 14, 2016
Describing Archives: A Content Standard
Table of Contents

Summary Information ................................................................................................................................. 3
Biographical note ........................................................................................................................................... 4
Scope and Content note ................................................................................................................................. 4
Administrative Information ........................................................................................................................... 4
Related Materials ......................................................................................................................................... 5
Controlled Access Headings ........................................................................................................................... 5
Collection Inventory ....................................................................................................................................... 6
Summary Information

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>Repository</th>
<th>Haverford College Quaker &amp; Special Collections</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>Creator</td>
<td>Dillwyn, George, 1738-1820</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Title</td>
<td>Dillwyn &amp; Hill family wills</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Date [inclusive]</td>
<td>1762-1801</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Extent</td>
<td>0.08 Linear feet</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Language</td>
<td>English</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>

Preferred Citation

Dillwyn & Hill family wills (MC.975.11.010), Quaker & Special Collections, Haverford College, Haverford, PA.
Biographical note

George Dillwyn (1738-1820) was born April 26, 1738 in Philadelphia, Pa. He married Sarah Hill in 1759. Dillwyn was unsuccessful in business, but was recognized as a minister in 1766. In 1784, he and his wife traveled to England and the continent of Europe on a religious visit, along with Sarah Grubb, Mary Dudley, Sarah Dillwyn, and Robert Grubb. In 1793, Dillwyn and his wife again visited England, where they stayed for nine years. George Dillwyn died June 23, 1820 in Burlington, N.J.

Scope and Content note

This collection is comprised of the single volume notebook of George Dillwyn, and is chiefly comprised of copies of the wills of many members of his wife Sarah Hill Dillwyn’s family. The notebook also includes notes concerning family estates, brief genealogical information for the family, maps for partitioning of land according to the deceased’s will, and Dillwyn’s notes concerning actions taken in his role as executor. Included in the notebook are the wills of Richard Hill Sr, Richard Hill Jr., Samuel Peyton Moore, Henry Hill, Margaret Smith, Mary Lamar, and Hannah Moore.

Administrative Information

Publication Information
Haverford College Quaker & Special Collections December 2015

Use Restrictions
Standard Federal Copyright Law Applies (U.S. Title 17).

Acquisition
Unknown.

Processing Information
Related Materials

Related Materials

- MC.975.03.009 George Dillwyn commonplace book
- MC.975.08.007 George Dillwyn financial records
- MC.975.01.017 William Dillwyn diary

Controlled Access Headings

Genre(s)

- Wills

Subject(s)

- Genealogy
- Quakers
- Quakers – Family relationships
- Quakers--History
Collection Inventory

| Wills 1762-1801 |