Margaret Hill Morris recipe book, undated
MC.975.11.024
Finding aid prepared by Kara Flynn

This finding aid was produced using the Archivists' Toolkit
April 14, 2016
Describing Archives: A Content Standard
Table of Contents

Summary Information ................................................................................................................................. 3
Biographical note ........................................................................................................................................... 4
Scope and Content note ................................................................................................................................. 4
Administrative Information ............................................................................................................................ 4
Related Materials ........................................................................................................................................ 5
Controlled Access Headings ......................................................................................................................... 5
Collection Inventory ...................................................................................................................................... 6
Biographical note

Margaret Hill Morris (1737-1816) was born in 1737, near Annapolis, Maryland. Her parents, Richard and Deborah (Moore) Hill moved to the island of Madeira when she was young, and Morris was raised by her aunt and uncle in Philadelphia. She married William Morris, a Quaker merchant, and early contributor to the Pennsylvania Hospital, in 1758. The couple had four children, three were born before William’s death in 1766, and one born after. In 1770, the family moved to the vicinity of Burlington, N.J. Morris was recognized as a skillful doctor and she regularly treated the ill and injured during the American Revolutionary War. Morris died on October 10, 1816.

Scope and Content note

This collection is comprised of the single volume recipe book of Margaret Hill Morris. This recipe book includes multiple recipes for pickling, drying, or otherwise preserving meat, eggs, and cream. A large number of recipes in this volume are for various ailments and illnesses, from adults to infants.

Administrative Information

Publication Information
Haverford College Quaker & Special Collections December 2015

Use Restrictions
Standard Federal Copyright Law Applies (U.S. Title 17).

Acquisition
Unknown.

Processing Information
Processed by Kara Flynn; completed December 2015.
Related Materials

Related Materials

- MC.975.11.031 Elizabeth Shoemaker recipe book
- MC.975.11.032 Anonymous recipe book
- MC 955 Edward Wanton Smith
- MC.975.01.049 Margaret Hill Morris diary
- MC 1000 Gulielma M. Howland papers

Controlled Access Headings

Genre(s)

- Recipe books

Subject(s)

- Food--History.
- Quaker women
- Quakers
- Quakers--History
Collection Inventory

Recipe book Undated