Preferred Citation

Friends World Conference minutes (MC.950.078), Quaker & Special Collections, Haverford College, Haverford, PA.
Historical note

The First Friends World Conference was in 1936. At the second Friends World Conference at Swarthmore, Pa., in 1937, the Friends World Committee for Consultation (FWCC) was created, and took the place of the Friends World Conference. The FWCC works to communicate between the FWCC’s world headquarters in London and Quakers around the world, and host Quaker conferences.

In addition to their world headquarters, the FWCC also includes the Africa section, the Asia and West Pacific Section, the Europe and Middle east section, and the Section of the Americas.

Scope and Content note

This collection is comprised of the typed minutes of a Meeting of the Committee on arrangements for the London Conference.
