Biographical note

P.N. Vrangel was a General who led the Southern front of the White army during the Civil War in Russia.

Scope and Content note

Two letters relating to business matters; one letter relates to historical events. Two of the 3 letters are written to Scull family members. The letter written in French to Monsieur Scull in 1926 is from (General) P. Wrangel. Wrangel states that the work he has done over 5 years to organize his comrades in arms and to boost their morale is finished. His greatest concern is for those young people, unable to work, who are the hope of Russia's future. Speaks of the generosity of such overseas friends as Scull. 4 ms. documents: lines written by a patient at Friends Asylum for the wedding of J.R. Potts and S. Bonsall; memorial for Judith Scull at Egg Harbor and Cape May Monthly Meeting, 1799, signed by Mark Townsend; a list of some overseers of William Penn Charter School across its history, including David Scull; annual report of Hospital of the Sick, ca. 1870.
