Abstract

Papers of Quaker Elizabeth Marsh Jensen who worked for the American Friends Service Committee in several capacities, notably with her husband, Daniel Jensen, in Mexico to assist Spanish Civil War refugees from 1940-41. She was also a businesswoman who successfully ran a ranch in Colorado and was known for her hospitality and friendship.

Background note

Elizabeth Marsh Jensen (1900-1999), daughter of Fred and Ivy Crites Marsh, was born in Nebraska. She graduated from Nebraska Central College (which merged in ca. 1963 with William Penn College), taught school in Nebraska, 1918-1922, and received a Master's in Economics from Haverford College in 1925. A Quaker, she was a member of Nebraska Yearly Meeting (see Nebraska Yearly Meeting folder dated La Grange, WY, 1979). She served in Five Years Meeting of Friends (now Friends United Meeting), and as Young Friends Secretary from 1925-1930. She worked toward the establishment of an adult Quaker study center near Philadelphia, Pendle Hill, in 1930, and served on its Board until marriage, but continued on committees thereafter. After her marriage to Daniel Jensen in 1935, they established the T-Box ranch near Fort Morgan, Co. where their daughter Karen was born in 1936.

Jensen worked for the American Friends Service Committee in several capacities: as Home Service and Personnel Director, 1930-1935, Personnel Director again in 1948. Jensen and her husband served in Mexico for two years, 1940-1941, working with Spanish Civil War refugees, and returned to Colorado in 1941. She worked for A.F.S.C. in Richmond, Indiana for four months to solicit gifts in kind (grain, potatoes, tomatoes, etc.) in 1946; and in Philadelphia, helping to find staff to work with Palestinian refugees on the Gaza Strip in the late 1940s. Jensen worked for the Des Moines office of A.F.S.C. (at

In 1949, the family moved west again, setting up the Double Slash J Ranch where innumerable visitors found hospitality. She served as a delegate to Friends World Committee in 1967 and held many offices in local organizations. Jensen received an honorary doctorate from William Penn University. She often referred to herself as a "ranch wife".

Daniel Jensen (1893-1971) attended Wesleyan University and worked in several capacities for the YMCA. After 1929, he started in the ranching business. He also worked for AFSC for two years among Spanish refugees in Mexico, 1940-41. He served as YMCA secretary in Omaha, Chicago, Monterey, and Mexico.

(Biographical information from registration forms for the Fourth Friends World Conference, 1967; In Memoriam for Daniel Jensen; EMJ obituary in Friends Journal, February, 2000; and other internal evidence)

Scope and content
Correspondence, diaries, articles and speeches relating to the service work and interests of Elizabeth Marsh Jensen in particular, as well as of her husband, Daniel Jensen.

Collection includes biographical information about EMJ (including EMJ's own summary description of her life written in 1987), and her work, beginning as a teacher, and especially her work for the American Friends Service Committee in the U.S. and Mexico. Materials document the Jensens' life and work on ranches in Colorado and Wyoming, and her political activism. Included is material on the period in 1928 which EMJ spent at the Quaker adult study center in England (Woodbrooke) and at the Quaker adult study center in America (Pendle Hill). The collection documents her work as representative to several Quaker organizations, such as Nebraska Yearly Meeting, Friends Committee on National Legislation and her activities with the Quaker Young Friends group.

Information for Users

Materials in boxes are arranged in five series: biographical (box 1); articles & other writings and addresses (box 2); correspondence (boxes 3-10); and topical (boxes 11-16); diaries are in six packages.

The collection was received arranged primarily by topics, and to the extent possible, this arrangement has been preserved. Elizabeth Marsh Jensen's diaries are located adjacent to the boxes.

Special notes: EMJ is used throughout for Elizabeth Marsh Jensen. Other abbreviations are AFSC (American Friends Service Committee), DJ (Daniel Jensen).

In all cases, there are full descriptions for the content of each folder. Though not all letter writers are listed individually, those that are brought out are done so on the basis of content of the letter or historical importance of the letter writer.

The symbol + is for Haverford College use only.

Diaries for 1984-86 cover years in Colorado; 1949, 1952-83 cover years in Wyoming; 2nd volume for 1958 covers trip abroad. These stand separately, adjoining the boxes.
